Choose Bookshops this Christmas

THE Bookcase in Lowdham is currently closed for browsing, but very much open for business and ready to help you with your Christmas shopping!

With a gorgeous range of cards, gifts, wrapping paper and of course beautiful books, their Christmas catalogue can be viewed digitally at www.thebookcase.co.uk or request a copy in the post by emailing: jane.streeter@thebookcase.co.uk with your address.

If you are walking past the shop there will be lots of lovely stock in the windows to view and videos of various sections of the shop will be available on their facebook page for a 'virtual' browse and order.

You can pay over the phone on 0115 9664143 and collect from the shop, have the items posted to you or to take advantage of their free, local delivery by arrangement.

"We are always so grateful for the lovely support we receive from our local community," said Jane Streeter. "We are doing everything we can to be a one-stop shop for your Christmas gifts this year!"

Local Authors

OUR Bramley area is awash with local literary talent!

Turn to pages 18 & 19 for details of three local authors and their books: Baytown Tales by Nicholas John, The Gift by Liz Coles and the Whitby Trilogy by John G Smith.

Fundraising Face Masks

LOCAL resident Barbara Green has been busy at her sewing machine making face masks to sell to raise money for this year's Poppy Appeal

Barbara has sold her face masks for £5 each. All £100 of the money raised has been donated to the Royal British Legion!

The next project will be making festive masks and this time fundraising for breast cancer charities as Barbara's daughter Suzie is currently being treated for this.

To order a facemask please email: suzev@hotmail.co.uk or Facebook message @suzev74.
